PEOPLE have been very instrumental to Hobbton
High School
this year, the year of its becoming accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.
All our thanks go to the wonderful people who co-operated in this worthy project: the principal; the school board and patrons; the secretary the lunchroom and janitorial staffs; and the ones who really make the school, faculty and the students. The people of Hobbton have put forth much effort in this great drive, and the VANGUARD will portray them in their work and efforts.

Dedicated To

MRS. EVELYN RIDDLE

The person to whom we have chosen to dedicate our yearbook has become, since her first year here in 1961, an inspiration to the students at Hobbton High School. She has given freely of her time to help Hobbton School and its people. She has consistently shown sympathy and is always concerned with her students' problems. She is not only a great teacher; she is a great person. Her qualities of patience, humor, and understanding will be remembered long after we have graduated and assumed our places in society. We will be able to look back and say that she was one of the people who helped us most in our transition from adolescence to adulthood. To MRS. EVELYN RIDDLE we proudly dedicate the 1964-65 edition of the VANGUARD.

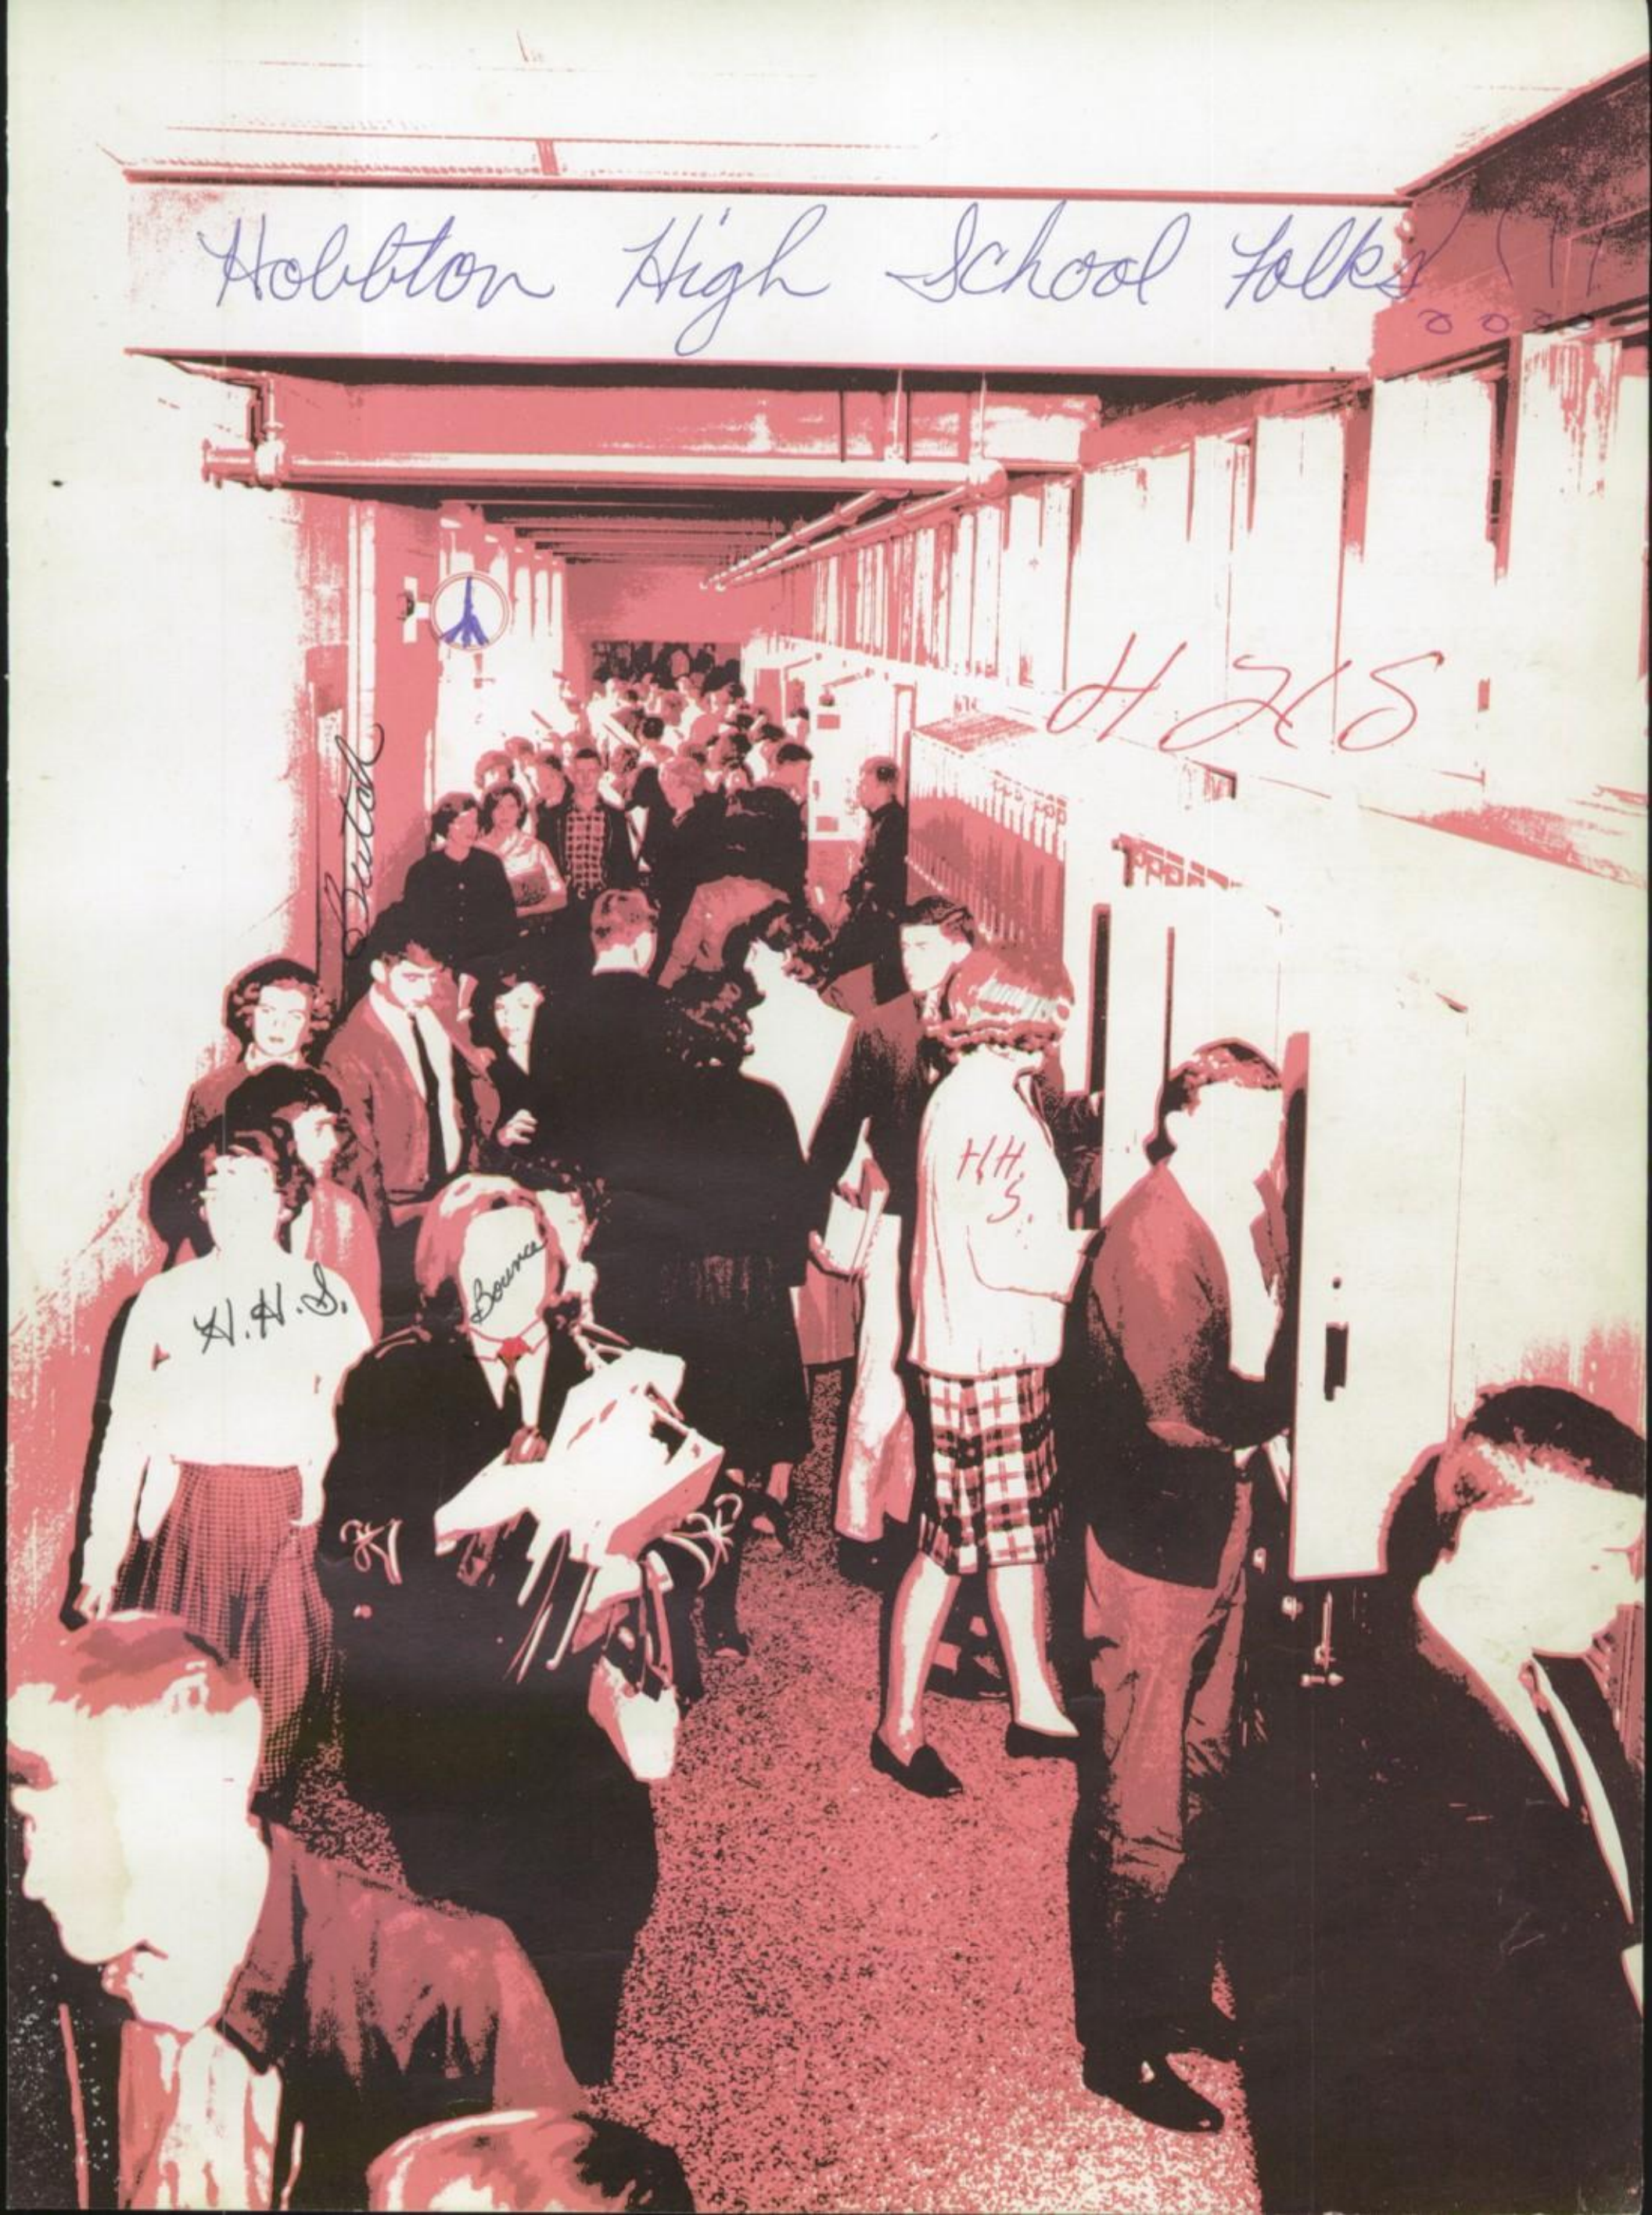
Hobbton High School Folks



Starting back to school at the close of summer vacation meant many things to the people of H. H. S. It meant getting on a school bus and enjoying all the fun and friendship that only riding the bus can offer. The first day had very special meaning for the seniors for it was the day on which they received their rings. It also meant meeting in the court at recess and discussing everything from sports to politics, and to all students it meant receiving books and beginning another year of study. Abigail Warren tried to get a head start on those assignments.

School days mean riding the bus and learning to survive, as Jim Britt and Charles Westbrook can verify. It means going to the basketball games and cheering for the Wildcats. It means getting a drink from the teachers lounge and slipping off to drink it.
Nancy Clifton thinks a drink is never better than when it can be slipped passed Mr. Simpson triumphantly.

Starting school means interesting club or class activities such as Miss West's Roman Party staged by her world history students. It means enjoying conversation with our friends over an appetizing lunch. Finally it means getting out of school, after a full day's activities, and going home.

These are the people who spend much time and effort teaching the students, giving them a good background in the major fields of knowledge and helping to develop their potentials. We will present them as we see them every day, helping us understand new concepts, learning more themselves so that they can better help us, and carrying on the tasks which make our school one of the best. It can truthfully be said that these people give their lives to helping other

Howard Harris Simpson

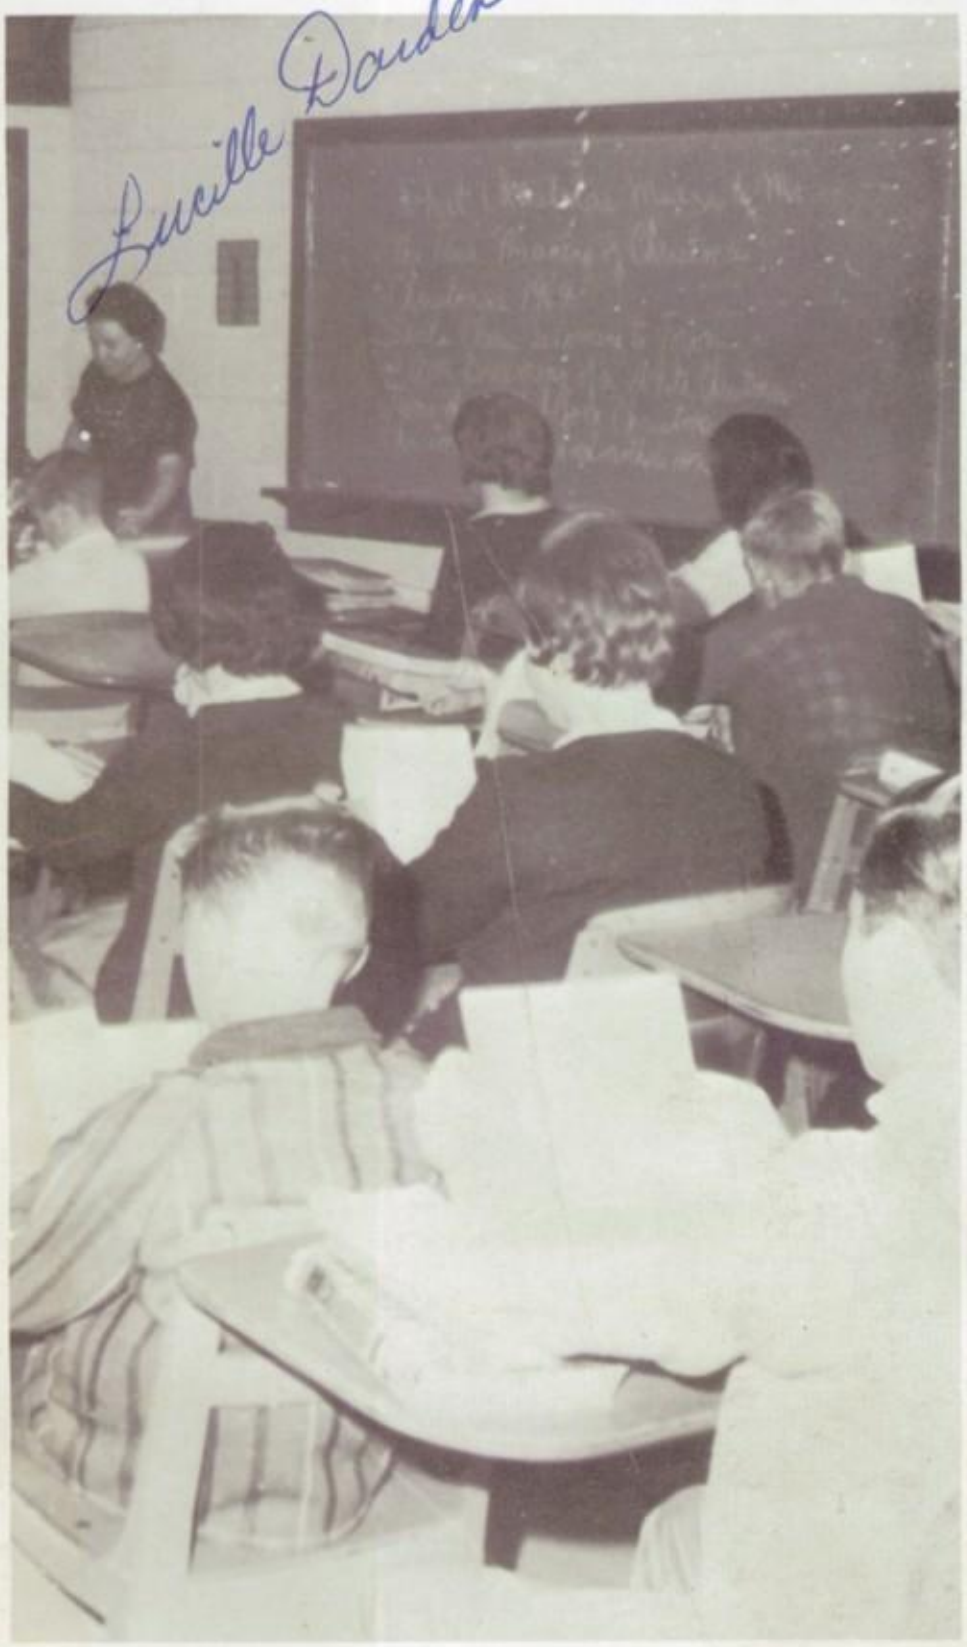
Administration

Mr. H. H. Simpson, principal, led the faculty, students, and patrons of Hobbton High School through a very successful year, a year that saw Hobbton accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The School Board, (below), an intricate part of our school, helped in every way possible to get our school accredited. They are Bowden Warren, chairman, Bill Odom, secretary, Brantly Sutton, Namon Daughtry, John W. Rose, Jesse Wooten, Cecil Odom, Lowell Hollingsworth, and Maxton Bass. Mrs. Jean Bishop, (right) was a welcome addition as school secretary. Because of her friendly attitude and helpfulness, she has become indispensable.

Jean

Mrs Darden

Lucille Darden

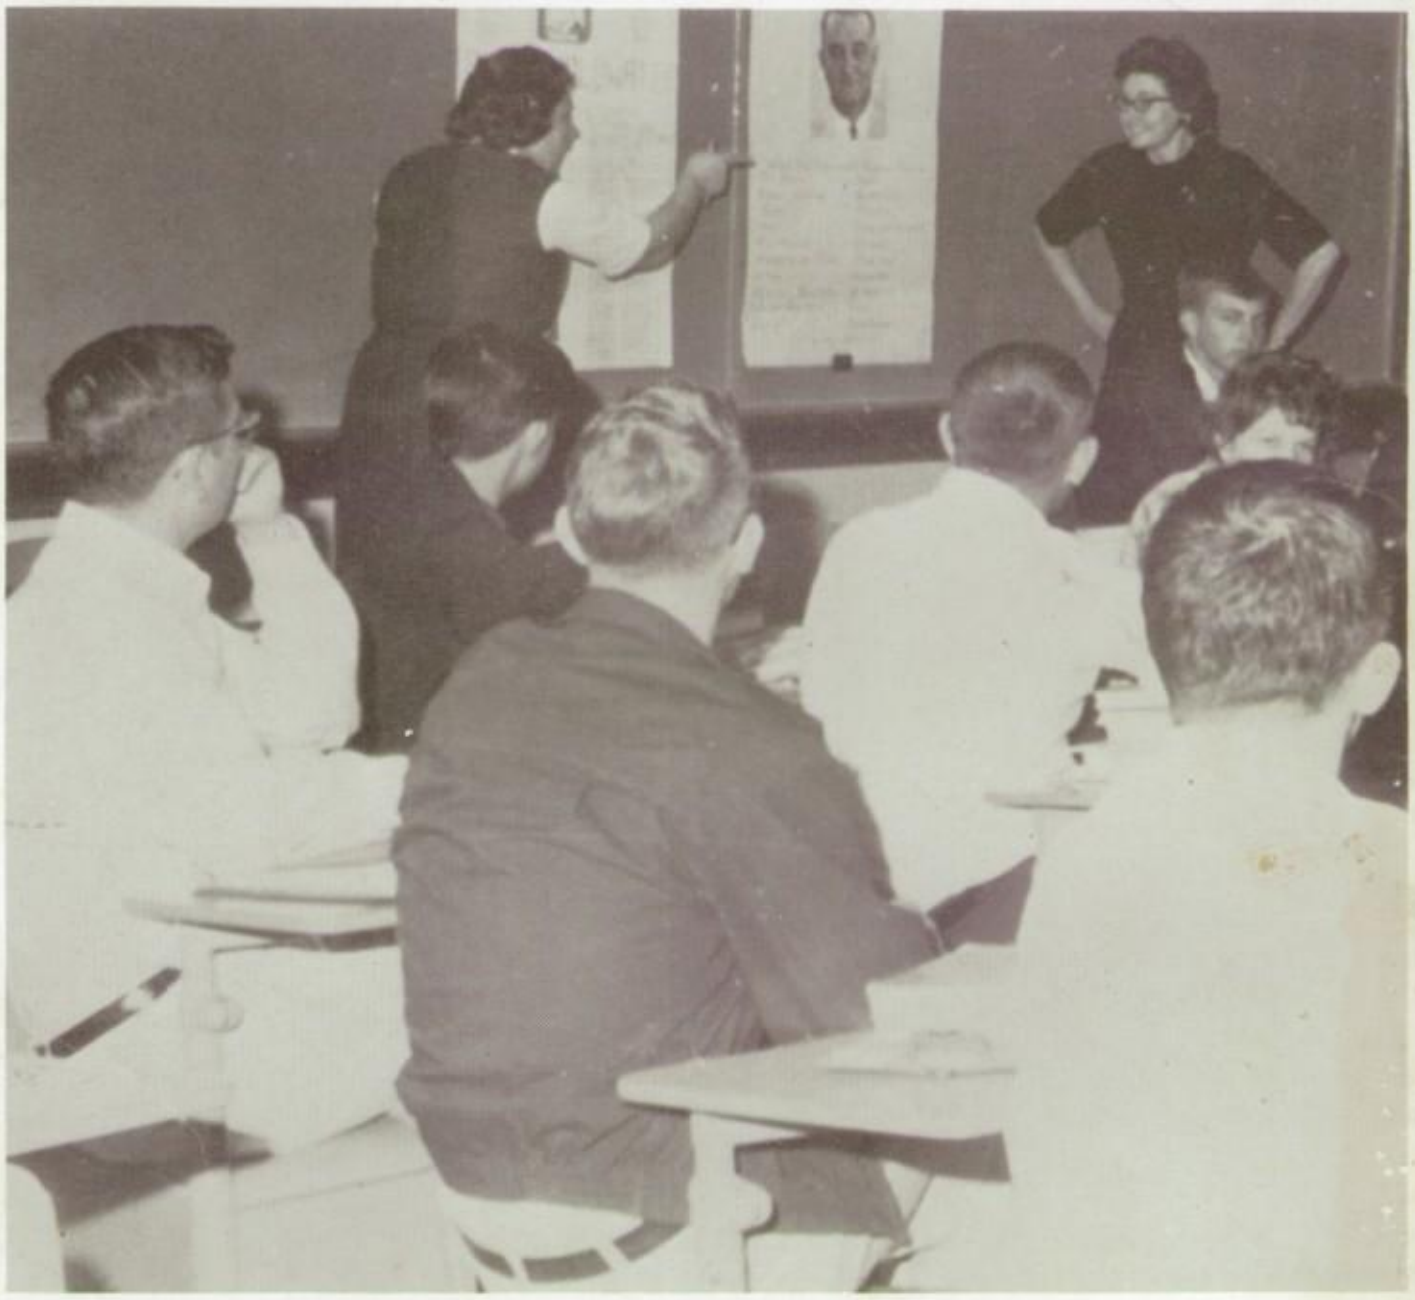


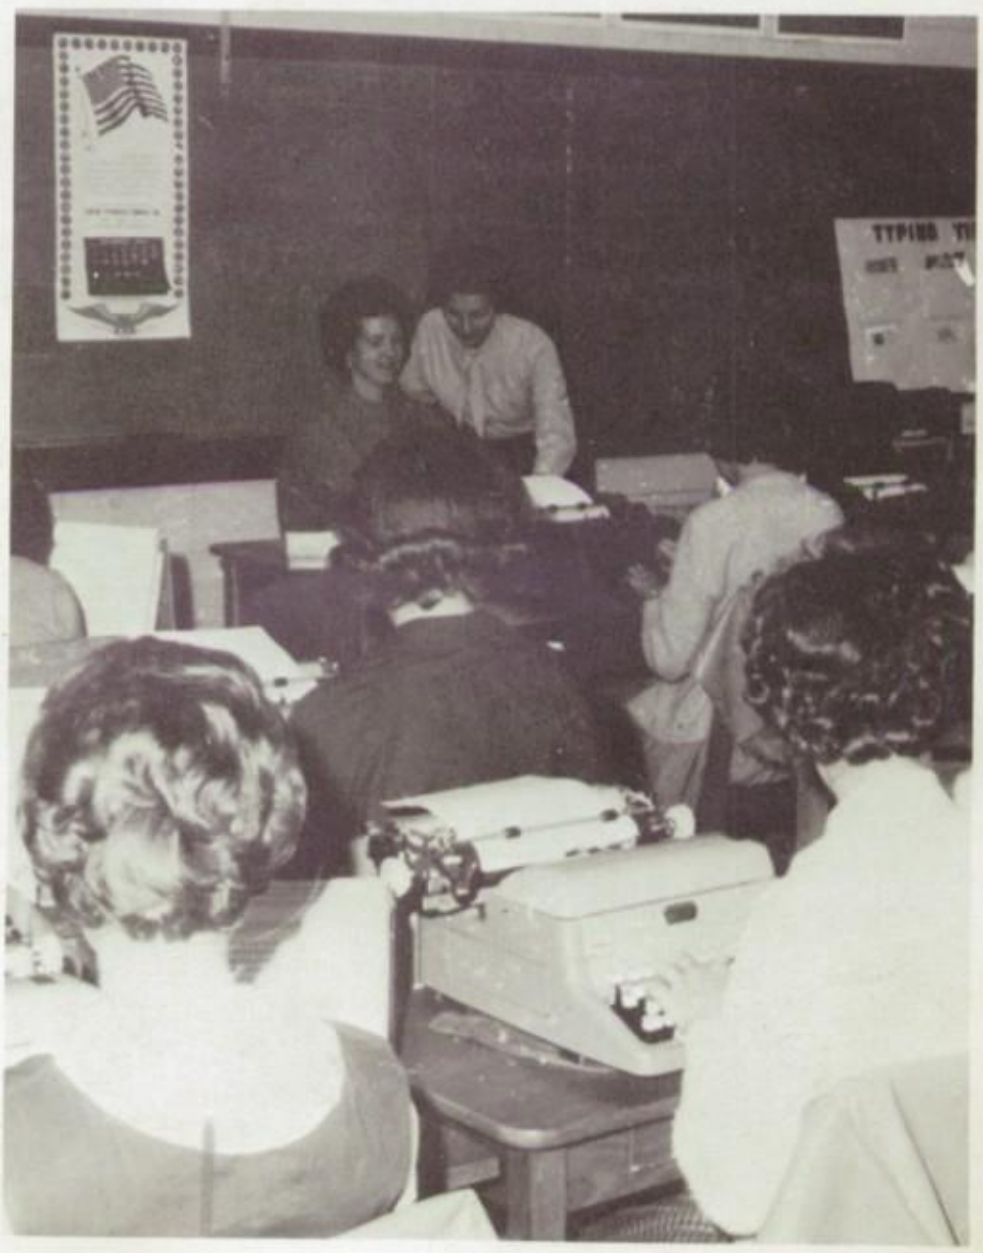
English

Helping the students to read with intelligence and write with proficiency are Mrs. Barbara Foster, Mrs. Lorraine Britt, Mrs. Mae Ellen Warwick, Mrs. Christine Hudson, Mrs. Kathryn Jackson, and Mrs. Lucille Darden who are our teachers of English (top). Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Britt, newcomers to this department teach business English. Mrs. Darden (left) is shown on a typical day in class. Well, maybe it isn't exactly typical. Most of the students put on their visible halos for the lensman.

Social Studies

Hobbton High School is fortunate to have two excellent social studies teachers (left), Mrs. Evelyn Riddle and Miss Matilda West. Being of opposite political parties, Mrs. Riddle and Miss West (below) are engaged in a hot debate over the Presidential election. The students eagerly take sides.





Business

The Business Department is headed by Mrs. Lorraine Britt and Mrs. Dan Hudson (above). Courses in typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, basic business, office practice, and business English enable Hobbton students to prepare themselves for immediate employment after high school or build a strong foundation for further advanced study in colleges or business schools. The "Typing Tips" display (right) is an example of the varied information Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Britt give to their students.

Math

$2a^4 = 16$. There is a problem to be solved, and either Miss Janice Keen or Mrs. Lovia Jackson (right), the math teachers, could give the answer. (Below) Ninth grade pixies Sarah Rayford and Bill Burch are busy working a math problem in Mrs. Jackson's class.

Science

"Look at this, Mr. Edwards," Mr. Vann says as he examines the marine life in the science department (above). "Something fishy is going on in the aquarium." The sign on the top reads "Keep Hands Off," but Mr. Vann is certain that he can see finger prints on the glass. Mr. Mack Edwards and Mr. Kern Vann, both science teachers, certainly have opportunity for interesting experiences and experiments. Mr. Edwards is shown with Joyce Tart, Garrett Herring, and Tony Wilson who are all deeply engrossed in the distillation of ... water?

Home Economics and Agriculture

This is a switch! Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson (top), home economics teacher, invites agriculture teachers Mr. Jack Mercer and Mr. Sam Jackson to share the "brew" her girls are preparing. Home economics is a "must" for all girls, since all girls plan to be housewives in the near and distant future. These future homemakers (middle) are busy preparing for their role in tomorrow's world. The agriculture students (left) gain practical know-how as they help to beautify the school grounds.

Industrial Arts and Trade and Industry

Mr. Dan Hudson, industrial arts teacher, checks a blueprint with Mr. Ed Jones, trade and industry teacher (Bottom). The T & I boys (right) pose for this picture after their return from Halls where the T & I courses are taught. This is Hobbton's first year with this vocational course. Industrial arts students (top) gain practical experience in the shop.

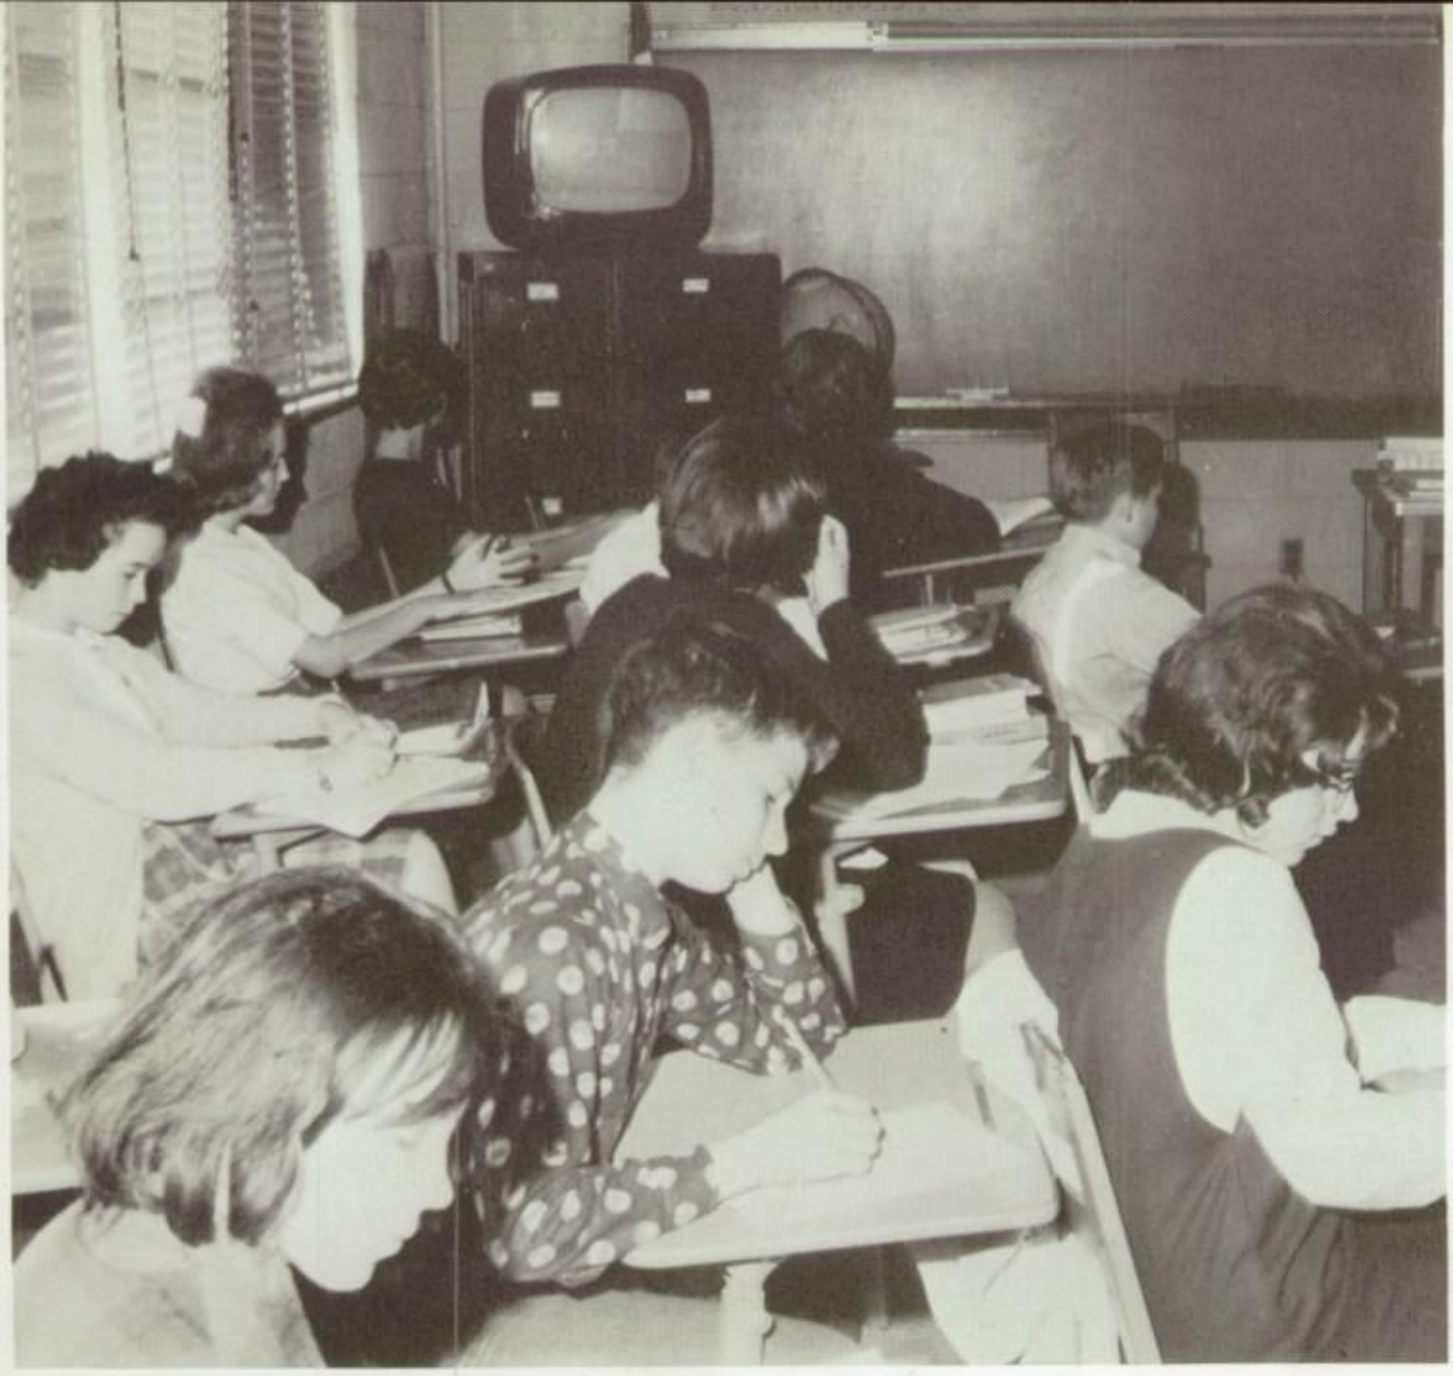
Madame Warwick

French, Library, Guidance

Hobbton's French teacher, Mrs. Mae Ellen Warwick (left) plays French records which is just one of the many devices she uses to make her classes so interesting. This year the French department is limited to only two years of the language, but in a few years four years of instruction will be provided. For the past two years. Mrs. Barbara Foster (below left), librarian, has worked tirelessly to provide more and better services in the library. The student body is really beginning to utilize the improved library resources (center). The new guidance counselor, Mrs. Evelyn Riddle (below right) helps students solve problems and decide about their future plans.

Music, Health and Physical Education

Mr. Archie Brigman, (above) health and physical education teacher and coach, seeks to improve daily the physical fitness of all students. The freshmen (top right) can verify this as they engage in calisthenics. Mr. Russell Hieb (right), director of music, practices a difficult bar as he prepares for his music theory class, which supplements the regular program of band and glee club.

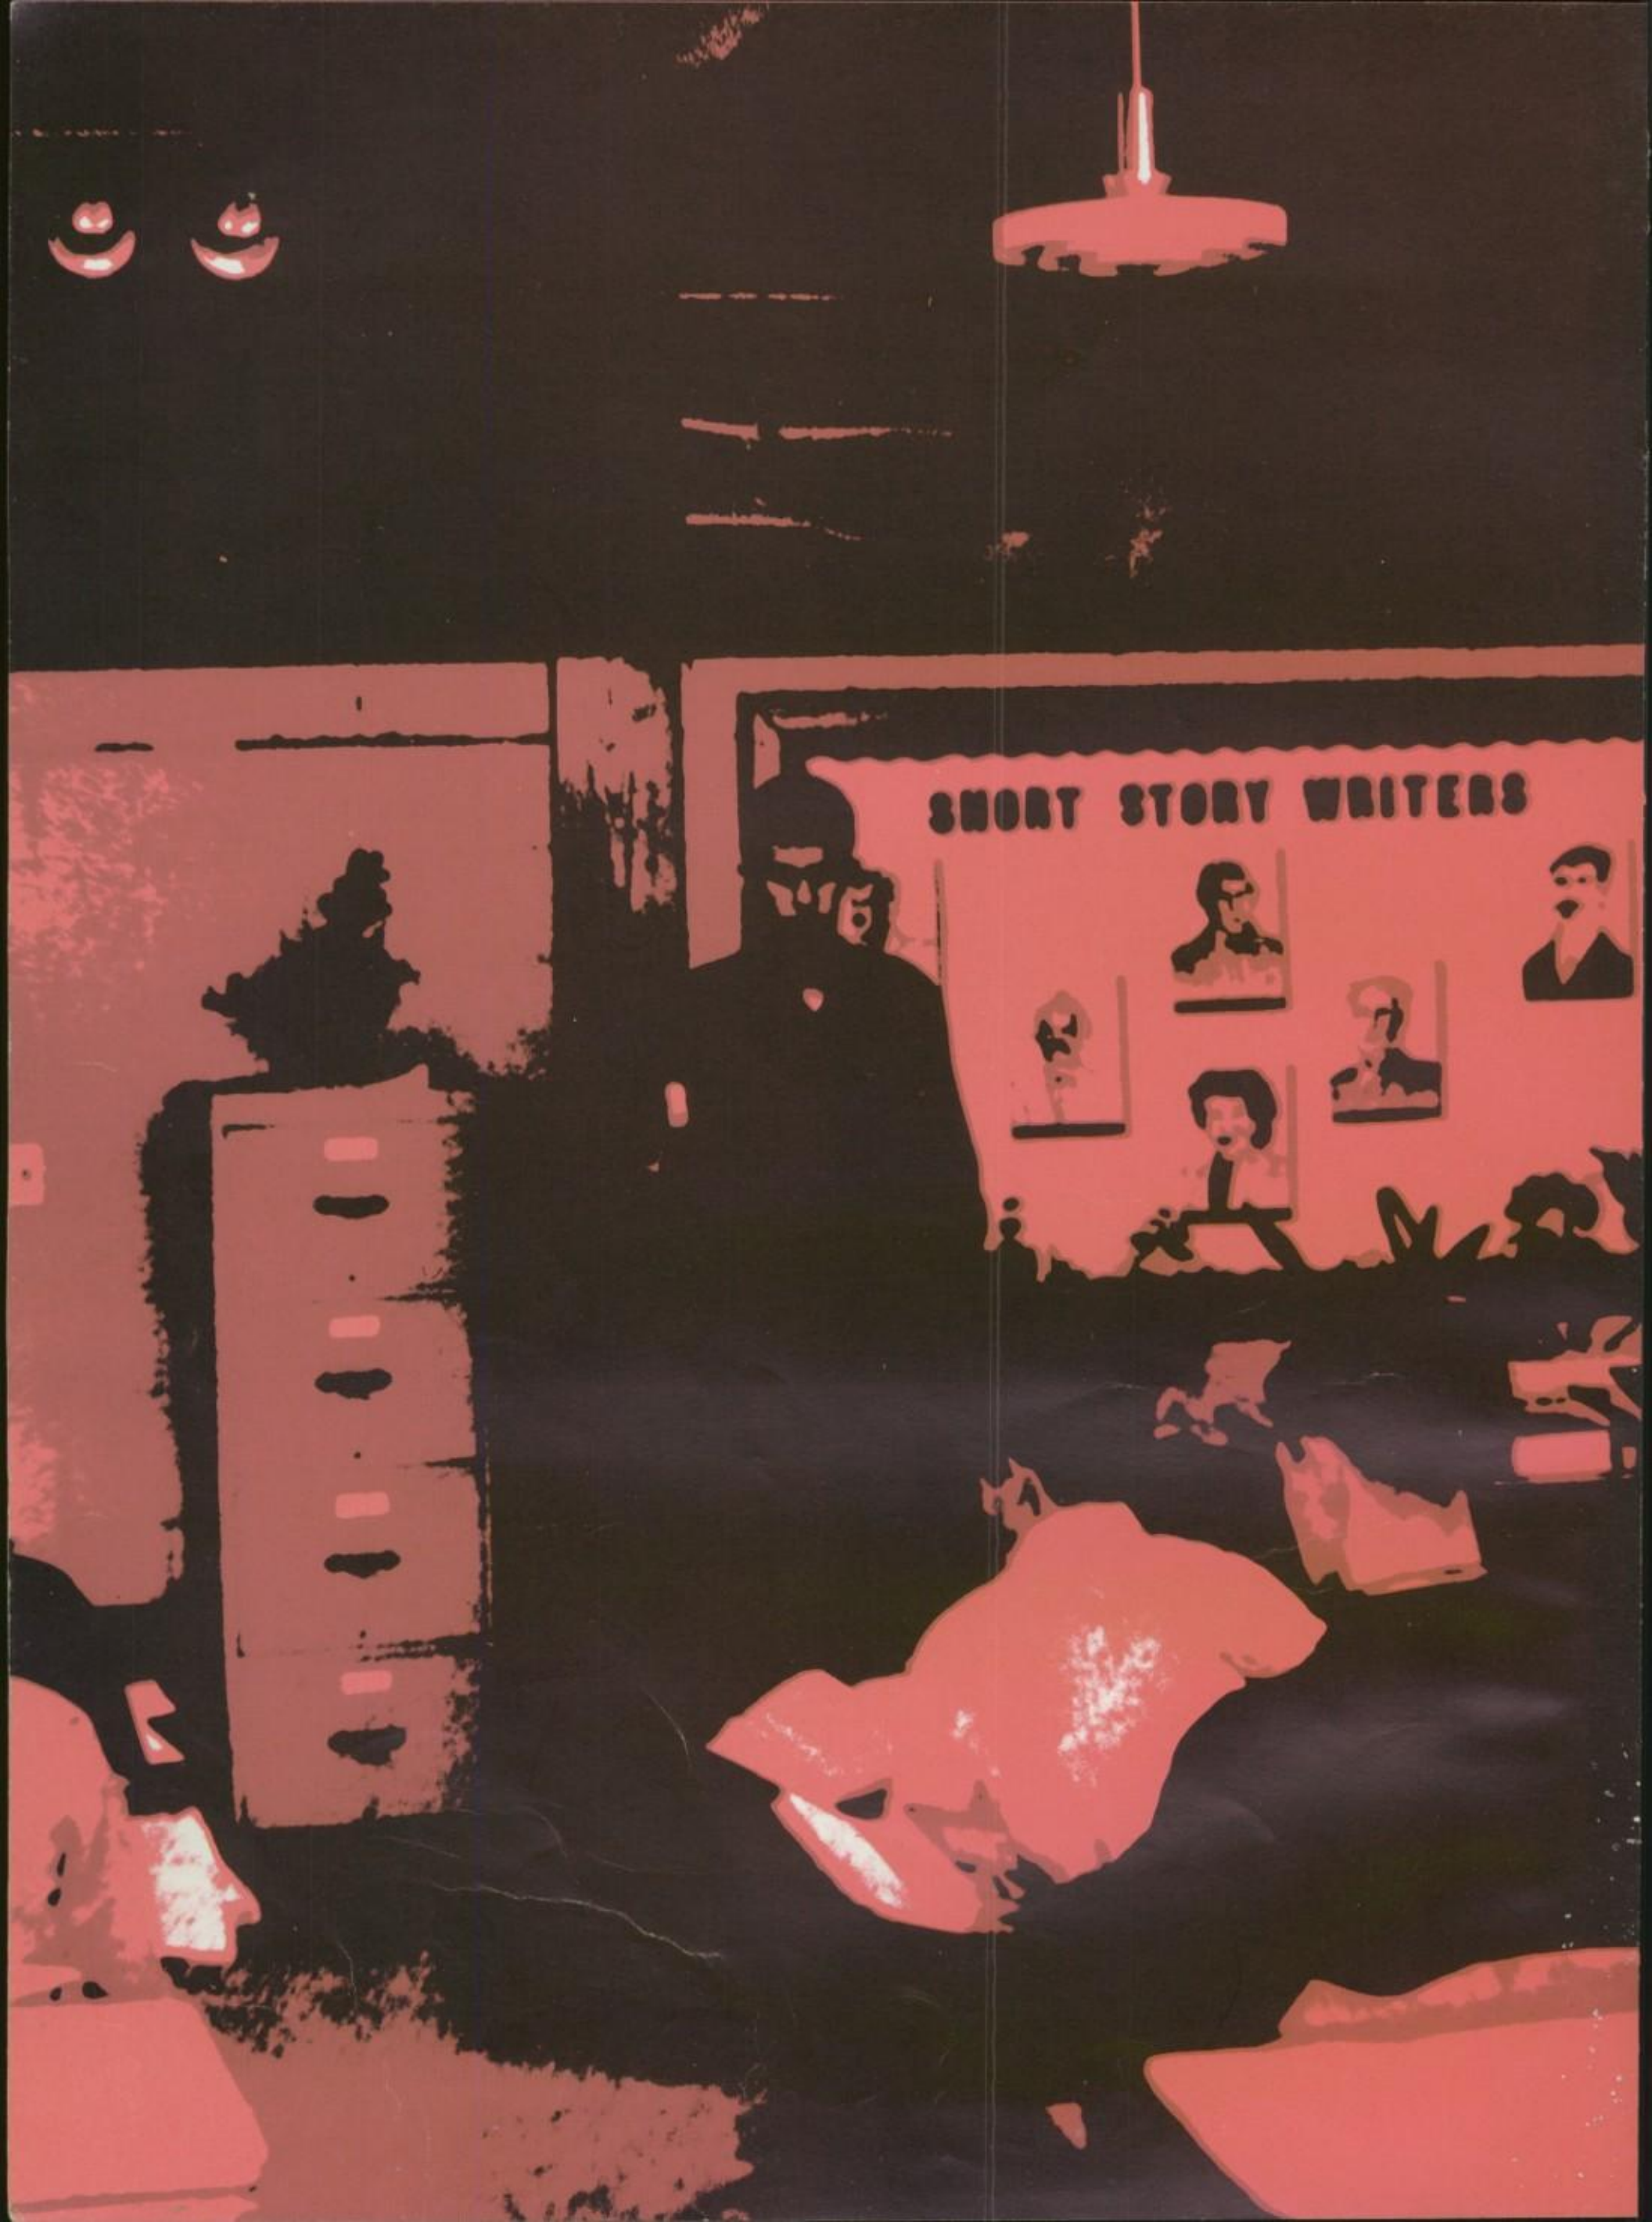


Eighth Grade

The eighth grade teachers, Mrs. Mary Herring, Mrs. Annie Mae Sutton, and Mrs. Evelyn Hieb (above) discuss their programs. They seek to prepare these young people academically and socially for high school (right).

Service

The smooth running of our school would not be so if it were not for the efficient services given by the lunchroom staff, the school bus drivers, and the maintenance staff. The lunchroom staff (bottom), Mrs. Buddy Lindsay, Mrs. Granger Sutton, Mrs. Louise Williams, and Mrs. Sarah King, work under the direction of the dietician, Mrs. Dempsey Benton. Mr. Weldon Cole and Mr. Ernie King (left) are the maintenance men. School bus drivers (top) are Wyman McDaniel, G. B. Hatcher, Gary Wilkes, David Williford, Garrett Herring, Charlie Vann, Billy Holland, Jimmy Eldridge, Johnny Deaver, Nelson Thigpen, Karen Casey, Betty Jean Hobbs, Dennis Guy, Kenneth Warren, Keith Lindsay, Nelson Waters, Kenneth Rose, Evelyn Wise, Brenda Williamson, Julia Baker, and Judy Warren.



SHORT STORY WRITERS

Organizations are an important part of our school. The people in our organizations govern our school, give the students incentive, help promote interest in our subjects, and work to upgrade our school as a whole. Organizations give the students the chance to share their interest in certain fields and give the students the challenge to learn more. These organizations through constructive projects improve and beautify Hobbton and make better citizens of its

Vanguard Staff

After the general staff completes the jobs of selling ads, tying tobacco, and washing cars to raise funds for the VANGUARD, (far left) G. B. Hatcher, ed.; Karen Warren, assist. ed.; Sherry Best, bus. mgr.; Mary Sue Kennedy and Sandra Keen, assist. bus. mgrs.; and Beth Britt, art ed. are left with the painstaking but desirable task of putting together the dummy. Without the able help of Gary Wilkes, Joe Myers, and Mr. Dan Hudson (top left) the VANGUARD would never be. We were lucky to get this rare picture of them, for they were usually behind the camera, not in front of it. "Just where should this picture be placed?" (bottom left). The members are beginning to realize that co-ordinating an annual isn't easy. To help with the layout or give advice is Mrs. Barbara Foster (middle left.) All the members of the staff worked extremely hard in making money for the '65 VANGUARD. It was not unusual to see (bottom left) Brenda Williamson and Gladys Shipp turning over their ad money to Sherry. Also (top right) Elaine Monk, Karen Warren, Gayle Daughtry, Beth Britt and Kathy Farmer spent much of their summer mowing lawns to make money, or at least most of the girls were mowing. Elaine spent most of her time trying to crank her lawn mower. The VANGUARD staff (middle & bottom right) was small this year, but the fortitude, the determination, and good natured attitude of the staff made up for its size.

Student Government Association

The S.G.A. is people: the people of Hobbton High School (top). It is a newly instituted organization which has assumed the duties of governing the student body, drawing up a constitution, and editing the newspaper. (above) The first four officers of the S.G.A. have reason to smile. They are from boot to hood Hope Allen, treas., G. B. Hatcher, pres., and Miriam Strickland, sec., Barry Burch, Vice Pres., and they are expertly sterned by Miss Matilda West. These people (left) are the Student Council. Elected in each home room, they are helping our school to be more meaningful to everyone.

Beta Club

Beta is made up of people, people who maintain an average of 90 or above (above). The Hobbton Chapter ran Tony McCullen and Joyce Tart for district officers this year, at the district meeting held at Seventy-First High School. The highlight of the day proved to be the breaking down of the bus only a few miles from its destination. Mrs. K. Jackson, the adviser, and the Beta members bummed a ride with Midway people. (Left) The officers of the Beta Club are Ken Cox, pres., Tony McCullen, vice pres., Miriam Strickland, sec., Gayle Daughtry, recording sec., Joyce Tart, treas.

Library Club

The Library Club (left) worked hard this year, learning about the library and helping Mrs. Foster, Librarian and adviser, improve the library so as to provide greater service to the people of Hobbton. Part of this service is knowing how to operate audio visual equipment. (bottom left) Karen Warren tells again her famous "dead" joke as she learns to use the tape recorder. The Library Club is small, made up of library assistants. The officers are Linda Williams, pres., Judy Warren, vice pres., Gail Cox, sec., Sandra Warren, treas., and Charlotte Maynard, hist. After joining the North Carolina High School Library Association, the club members attended the district NCHSLA meeting at Midway High School. Their talent entry was Beth Britt (above) who "stole the show" with her favorite song "The Deadwood Stage."

F.T.A.

The Future Teachers of America, advised by Mrs. Lucille Darden, has been extremely active (above). The F.T.A. scrapbook has been brought up to date and a constitution has been adopted. Serving as officers (top right) are Rebecca Wise, pres., Elaine Monk, sec., Gayle Daughtry, reporter, Nida Britt, Joy Williams, treas., Karen Warren, hist., and Carolyn Adams, parl. Judy Warren and Charlotte Maynard, members of the F.T.A. and also library assistants, were in charge of the F.T.A. information center located in the library. Judy (right) checks out material to Betty Jean Williams, Sandra Keen, Carolyn Raynor, and Elaine Monk.

Debating Team

This year's debating team is made up of two seniors Gayle Daughtry and Beth Britt and two sophomores Abigail Warren and Hope Allen. They spent much time with their coaches Mr. H. H. Simpson and Miss Matilda West tirelessly preparing their speeches and studying the techniques of debating.

Public Speaking

The members of the public speaking group have many chances to speak to people. They speak at P.T.A. meetings, in chapel programs and other functions. Mr. H.H. Simpson is the coach of the public speaking people.

French Club

"Qui parle francais a Hobbton?" The French Club members, no less. Meetings are fun when guest speakers answer "questionnes," students sing "chanton de francais," and eat those delectable "cuisines." Madame Warwick encourages members to bring a breath of France to Hobbton's halls; thus it is not rare to hear "Bonjour, comment-alle vous?" and "Avoir" echoing through the building.

Business Club

Newest of the organizations at Hobbton is the Business Club (middle.) Under the watchful eyes of Mesdames Lorraine Britt and Christine Hudson, the busy members publish the HOBBTONIAN, which is edited by the Student Council. Mrs. Britt and Mrs. Hudson show Brenda Wiggins, Daisy King, and Nancy Clifton (top) the correct way to operate the mimeograph machine, to help them avoid errors and ink spots on their clothes. Sherry Best, Julia Baker, and Brenda Williamson (left) demonstrate another helpful duty performed by this club, as they run off test copies for some unsuspecting class, sighing with relief that it is not their own.

Future Homemakers of America

What a lovely world we will have for the people of tomorrow if the homemakers of the future are as active as their organization at Hobbton is today. One of the most active clubs of our school, the Future Homemakers of America depends heavily upon the capability of Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, the sponsor, (below left) shown with some F.H.A. girls, who like all the others, love Mrs. Jackson's counseling: F.H.A. people gathered in the auditorium on January 11 for their fourth meeting below). Miriam Strickland, Ann Troublefield, Dee Williams, and Daisy King, for devotion, present a study of character. The highlight of the Christmas meeting was Karen Warren as "Santa Claus" hearing all the little wishes from Gayle Daughtry at her feet and Mary Sue Kennedy on her knee. Junior and senior F.H.A.'ers sit on football bleachers (right) with Glenn Cannady, second row center, the only boy of the club. Underclass members (below right) are strictly all girls.

Future Farmers of America

The F.F.A. is sponsored by two one-time-farm-boys-now-turned teachers, Mr. Sam Jackson and Mr. Jack Mercer. This organization is especially valuable to a rural community as it seeks to develop leadership, co-operation, and citizenship. The members are readily identified among the students by their bright blue and gold coats.

... and from the auditorium comes music to beat the band. After rehearsals Mr. Hieb sometimes repairs instruments (far left). The majorettes enjoy (left) working out choreography for march music and have many rehearsals after school. During football season, it is a common sight to see the band marching on the field (below) preparing for that half-time show. But music is a year 'round thing so Christmas and spring bring more parades, concerts, and crowds.

Sports are important to the prestige of Hobbton. Our status with other schools is very much determined by our rank in sports as well as our attitude toward our competitors. Our sports program at Hobbton is profitable to our students because it helps to round out their four years of high school. It helps develop our students physically and gives them a real awareness of what competition is like. It gives many students the chance to become heroes. We are very proud of our sports program because the keen competition that it provides helps our students in their transition from mere adolescents to adult

Cheerleaders

"From the team, from the fans, from the cheerleaders to..." especially from the cheerleaders come the enthusiastic cries for victory. Whether yelling along the side lines at football games or scattered and jumping across the basketball court, it is certain that the squad, Ann Troublefield, Nida Britt, Carolyn Raynor, Chief Mary Sue Kennedy, Mary Jane Bass, Joy Williams, Gail Thornton, Lorraine Sutton, Debbie Chestnut, Connie Britt, and Emily Warren, will be prime examples of good sportsmanship and the Hobbton spirit.

Football

is a great game!! and also dangerous!

A chill in the air, a score of bright lights, and a blast of the whistle ushered in Hobbton's second football season, as a throng of cheering supporters gathered to welcome old and new players at the opening game. The boys on the team are serious in their efforts to keep physically fit and fully understand the game. Under the superior coaching of Archie Brigman and Sam Jackson, Hobbton's football team had a successful season. As a member of the Eastern Plains Conference this year, our won-lost record vouches for the fact that the team did not lack the initiative and drive to win.

The team opened the season with a victory over Union 8-0. Next, they met on home soil with Four Oaks in a tight game in which Steve Lewis brought home the victory by racing 60 yards for a touchdown and a 12-7 win over the first conference foe. With victory fresh in the air, the Wildcats met New Hope in Hobbton's homecoming game for the second conference win, a 31-13 triumph. On October 16, the team hit a sour note in its young football career, with a defeat to Mt. Olive 25-0. Next the wildcats ventured out only to come home with an unexpected tie 19-19 with Roseboro-Salemburg. The squad met Charles B. Aycock for the third conference game of the season. In a gridiron duel the Wildcats came out on the wrong end of a 21-12 game. With a taste of defeat, but determined to win, they met Union on Hobbton's field and came out victorious 21-0. Near the end of the season, the team journed to Green Central for the fourth conference game. Even though star fullback Ken Cox showed magnificient skill in running the second half kick-off 80 yards for a touchdown, the wildcats lost a heartbreaker 13-12. In the final game, Hobbton met Midway at home. Well prepared for this game, they came out victorious 20-0. Thus the second year of football proved to be a winning year with 5 wins and 3 losses and 1 tie. Players pictured at the bottom (left to right) are Gary Hollingsworth, Hubert Westbrook, Philip Warren, Woody McLamb, Philip Godwin, Travis Daughtry, James Wilson, Ted Tadlock, Tommy McCullen, Tommy Jordan, Doyle Daughtry, Bobby Warren, Glenn Talton, and Ricky Cashwell. Pictured individually are (left) Joe Dunbar and Holt Jackson and (right) Steve Lewis, Ken Cox, Ricky Cashwell, and Butch Warren. No sooner than football uniforms are stored for the season are basketball suits taken from the moth balls. Fans change their yells from "Block that kick!" to "Make that basket!" As soon as the final bell of the day has rung, the girls on the basketball team rush to the dressing room to dress for practice; Tuesday and Friday nights bring the games... some won, some lost. The game on January 8 with Clinton High was one of the most action packed of the season. Miss Hobbton

Ten formal dresses and a full house on November 24 welcomed Miss North Carolina Sharon Finch and Mrs. North Carolina Ann Reynolds to the annual F.H.A. sponsored Miss Hobbton Pageant. The seniors walked away with top honors as Linda Williams and Mary Jane Bass (right) placed in the top five, Mary Sue Kennedy and Elaine Monk (top right) graciously accepted titles of first and second runners-up, respectively, and at 11:30, long stemmed red roses were laid in GAYLE DAUGHTRY'S arms as she became MISS HOBBTON '65.

The football players selected nine girls to vie for the title of Homecoming Queen. On the night of the October 9 game, as the band struck up a fanfare, the senior nominees Joy Williams and Sherry Best (top), Nida Britt and Mary Jane Bass (right), and junior nominees (next page) Lorraine Sutton, Kay Wilson, Cecelia Smith, Joyce Tart, and Becky Hargrove were escorted onto the football field. Moments later a radiant MARY JANE BASS was crowned and cheered as HOMECOMING QUEEN '65.

The lovely homecoming court watched as New Hope struggled with the Hobbton Wildcats. A Hobbton victory of 31-13 brought a deafening roar from enthusiastic fans and old grads home from college. The VANGUARD staff was on hand, selling black and gold pom poms to the people. And of course the event was made completely by a brassy band, fire batons, and hot pop corn.

MR. and MISS VANGUARD GARY WILKES and SHERRY BEST were elected by the VANGUARD staff. Gary is student photographer for the yearbook and Sherry is business manager. Congratulations to Sherry and Gary, a worthy and deserving pair.

Marshals

Selected during their Junior year, marshals serve mainly at graduation, proudly showing off the badges that signify their superior academic achievement. Chief marshal Ken Cox and his fellow marshals, Sherry Best, Sandra Keen, Laura Odom, Karen Casey, Gayle Daughtry, Barry Burch, G.B. Hatcher, and Karen Warren, were invaluable as ushers and in distributing programs.

Awards

G.B. HATCHER, an outstanding senior, was selected to be Hobbton's representative at Boys' State. G.B. was also named American Legion speaker and was coached most successfully by Mr. Simpson (first). The D.A.R. award is presented each year to a girl who displays good citizenship. This year's recipient is SANDRA KEEN (second). KEN COX (third) received the honor of being Hobbton's nominee for the Morehead Scholarship. He placed first in county-wide competition. ANN TROUBLEFIELD (fourth) was nominated by the Hobbton F.H.A. for state office from the District III. She now holds the distinction of being North Carolinas' State F.H.A. Parliamentarian.

Outstanding Seniors

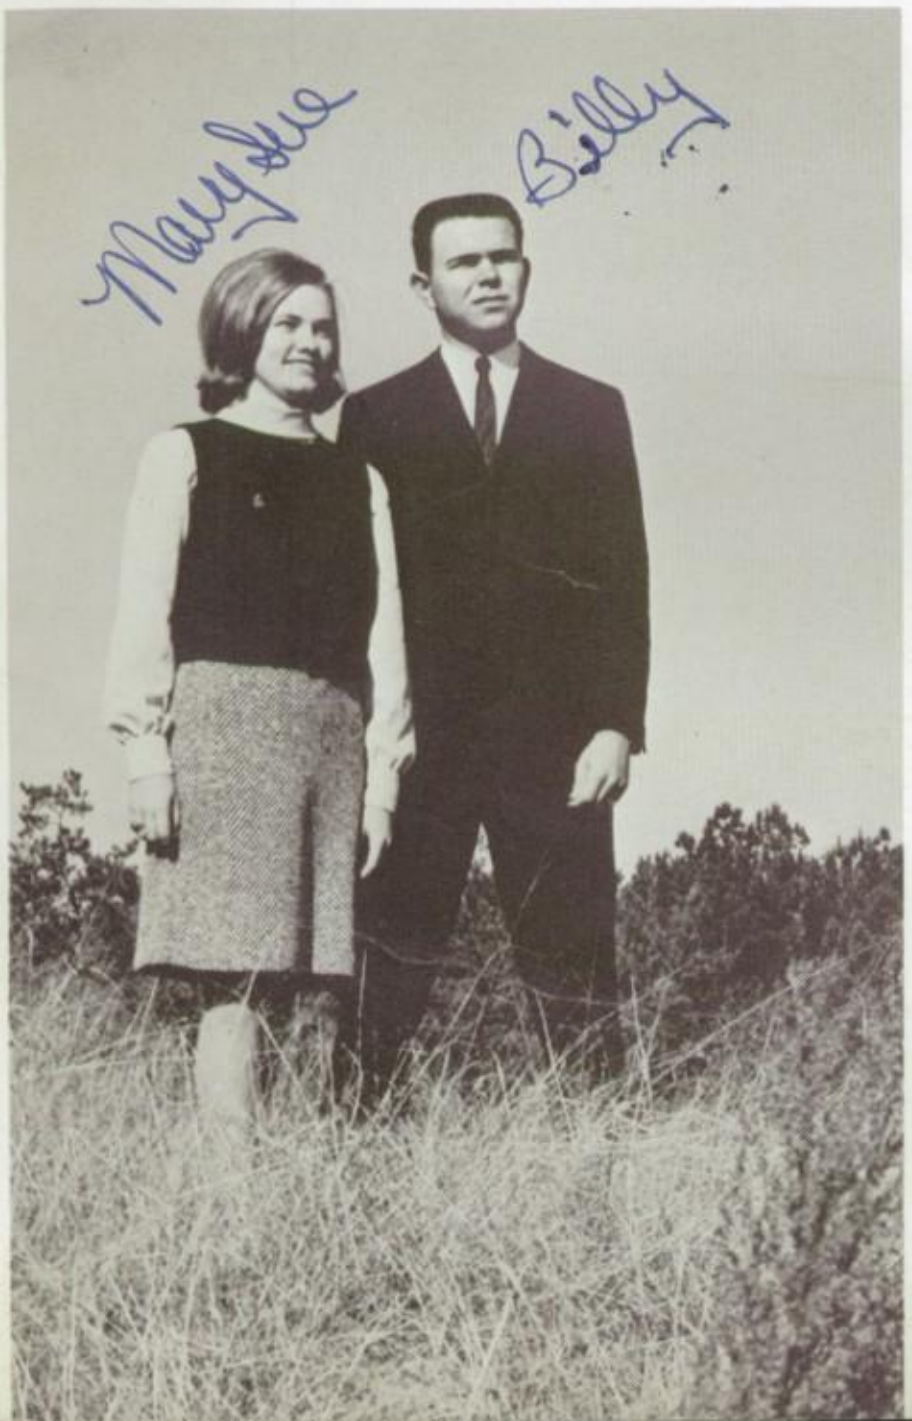
SHERRY BEST, an F.H.A. member for four years, has displayed qualities of leadership throughout high school. In her sophomore year Sherry was elected secretary of her class and became a member of the Beta Club. The most exciting part of her junior year was the distinction of being named a marshal. As a senior, she was in the homecoming court and a member of the newly formed Business Club. Sherry spent much of the first part of this year working as business manager of the VANGUARD and was selected by the yearbook staff as MISS VANGUARD. French Club president KEN COX, also an outstanding senior, spent his most enjoyable moments in high school playing baseball, football, and basketball. In his junior year, he was named All-Conference in basketball. His senior year was highlighted by his being chosen All-East in football. Ken is outstanding scholastically as well as athletically, for he was chief marshal in his junior year and president of the Beta Club his senior year. Ken was honored when he represented Hobbton as its Morehead Scholarship nominee and placed first in the county.

Miss Hobbton 1965, GAYLE DAUGHTRY, spent many tedious hours in basketball practice, but they paid off when she was named Wildcat Captain for 1965-1965. Though most of her time was spent representing her school on the ball court or as its lovely queen, she somehow found time to participate in club activities. Gayle is a member of the French Club, historian of the F.H.A., and is serving the F.T.A. as its reporter. Gayle is academically talented. In her junior year she was a marshal and this year she is recording secretary of the Beta Club. G.B. HATCHER represents Hobbton as the President of the student body. In his sophomore year he served his class as vice president; in his junior year he was a marshal. Because of his interest and achievement in social studies, he was chosen to attend the Governor's School in the summer of 1963. One summer later he attended Boys' State as Hobbton's representative. His club activities vary from being a member of the Beta Club in his junior year. His reputation as a capable worker gave him the honor of being editor-in-chief of the VANGUARD '65.

Lovely MARY JANE BASS, Homecoming Queen '65, is known for her genuine charm and personality. She used much of this charm and grace to become one of the five finalist in the 1965 Miss Hobbton Pageant. Mary Jane, an enthusiastic cheerleader, serves as secretary of her senior class and was vice president of her freshman class. Club activities have been another important phase of Mary Jane's high school life. She is a member of the F.T.A., French Club. She is a member of the F.T.A., French Club, Business Club, and the glee club. Speedy halfback STEVE LEWIS has played varsity baseball and basketball for two years. This year he will be pitcher on the Wildcat baseball team. He is a first string forward on the basketball team. Because of his popularity and leadership qualities, he was, in his sophomore year, elected president of his class.

Petite blonde MARY SUE KENNEDY has shown much vim and school spirit as a cheerleader for four years and as chief her senior year. She is often called on in chapel to lead her squad and the students in a cheer or the school song. Mary Sue uses that vim in other ways, also. She is assistant business manager of the VANGUARD and served the band as treasurer in her junior year. Her charm, personality, and talent helped her capture the title of first runner-up in the 1965 Miss Hobbton Pageant. BILLY HOLLAND is known at Hobbton for his love of sports. Each spring Billy dons a Wildcat baseball uniform to play infield for his team. Billy spends the winter playing forward on the basketball team. However, all of his extra curricular activities were not devoted to athletics. Billy served as vice-president of his class in his junior year and as treasurer of the F.F.A. in his sophomore year.

BETH BRITT, with her witty remarks and uproarious laughter is perhaps the most unique person Hobbton has encountered. She loves to play the piano and sing, and it isn't unusual to see Beth banging out a snappy song for all to hear. She has performed at many functions, from school club meetings to district F.H.A. and NCHLA rallies. She has entertained an amazed audience at many of the Miss Hobbton Pageants, in addition to accompanying many of the contestants, Beth uses her musical talent as F.H.A. pianist; during her sophomore and minor years she served as glee club pianist. Art is another of Beth's talents—a talent which caused her to be named art editor of the '65 VANGUARD and which caused her to be responsible for the attractive bulletin boards in the library. In addition to many hours spent in music and art, Beth found time to be on the debating team. Beth will especially be remembered in that she was never too busy to help anyone who asked for help. JEFF BAILEY, Beta Club member for three years, proved his excellent scholarship by winning the U.S. History Award his junior year. This year Jeff is serving as student council representative and is a member of the French Club. Another of his interests is farming. Jeff has been a member of the F.F.A. for three years.



F.T.A. secretary, NIDA BRITT is a very popular young lady. Her class chose her as one of the senior representatives in the Miss Hobbton Pageant, and she was a member of the Homecoming Court. Nida became a Hobbton cheerleader in her eventful senior year. She is also a member of the French Club. HOLT JACKSON, president of the senior class, is an all-round good Hobbtonion. He enjoys his job as eighth grade physical education assistant instructor. He perhaps prepared for this job physically by playing defensive end on Hobbton's football team. Holt, a senior Student Council representative, is also a member of the French Club. In addition to these extracurricular activities, Holt has maintained a good scholastic average and found time to travel throughout the state as driver of the activity bus.

SANDRA KEEN'S excellent citizenship through four years of high school was recognized her senior year when she was awarded the Daughters of American Revolution award. She was Beta Club corresponding secretary, class secretary, and a marshal her junior year. Always eager to represent her school, and doing an excellent job whenever she did, caused Sandra to be given other responsibilities her senior year. She became assistant business manager of the VANGUARD and French Club treasurer. F.F.A. member, HAROLD BRADSHAW, worked hard running from store to store selling ads for the VANGUARD in his senior year. Later, his class, realizing his capabilities and bright personality, elected him vice-president of the senior class. Harold further serves his school by driving a school bus.

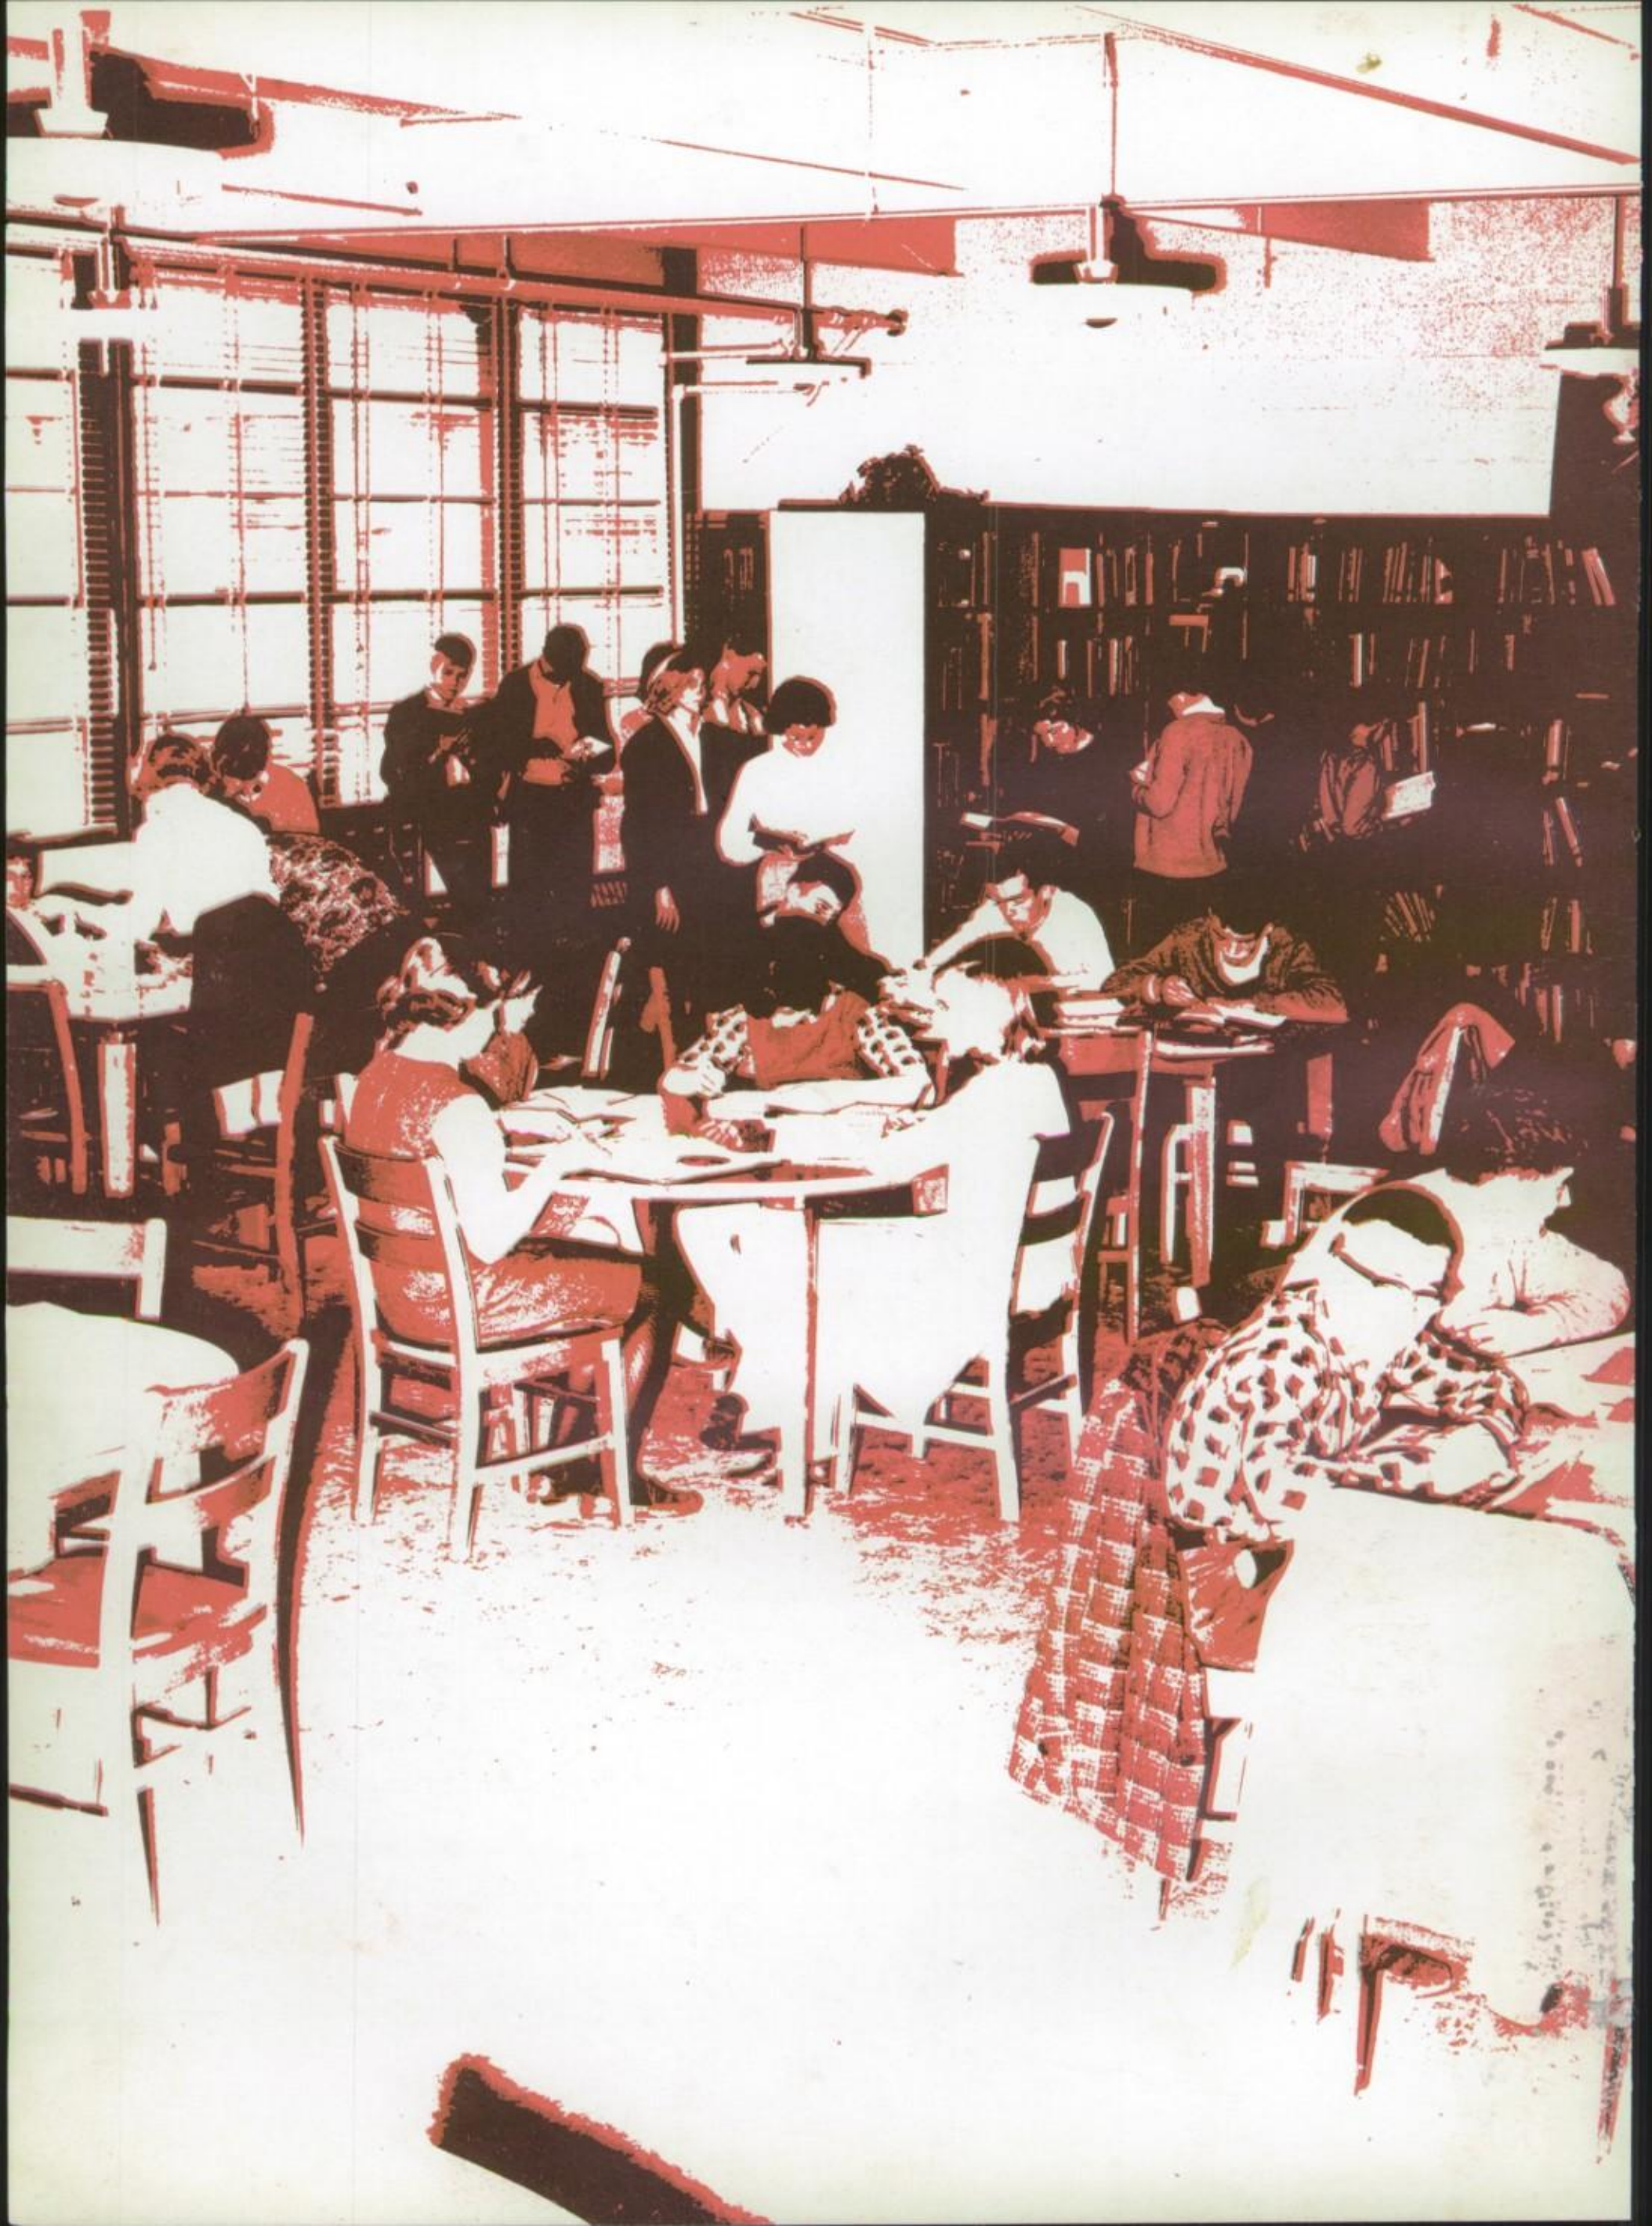
CAROLYN RAYNOR, a tall graceful blonde, had very exciting and eventful junior and senior years. In her junior year she won the coveted title of Miss Hobbton and later was chosen a member of the Homecoming Court. Other junior achievements were becoming a cheerleader and joining the French Club. As Miss Hobbton, Carolyn spent many happy hours representing Hobbton. During her senior year, she was elected Miss Merry Christmas of Dunn and Miss Holiday Queen of Clinton. In her sophomore year, she joined the Beta Club and she has maintained her high scholastic average. Carolyn is also a member of the F.H.A. and F.T.A. BARRY BURCH, Beta Club member for three years, has a divided interest in school and farming, but he has managed well to combine the two interests. He has been in the Future Farmers of America for four years, and through F.F.A. was State Watermelon King in 1962. Barry is a well liked and respected member of Hobbton's student body. Evidence of this fact is his being elected vice-president of the Student Government Association in his senior year.

KAREN WARREN, assistant editor of VANGUARD '65, is one of the main persons we have to thank for our yearbook. She put much time and thought in it to make it the best yet. Karen excels in music. She has been a band member four years and in the dance band for three. Also, she was a member of the glee club for three years. Karen enlivened many pageants and meetings with her piano or voice selections. During her freshman year, she was elected treasurer of her class. She became a member of the Beta Club her sophomore year and a marshal a year later. In her senior year, she is a member of the Library Club and serves as historian of the French Club. Concerts, parades, and football shows have been a large part of TOMMY DAUGHTRY'S life. He has played French horn in the band for all four of his high school years. The junior year was full of work for president Tommy because of the Junior-Senior Prom. Even though it was trying Tommy enjoyed appointing and working on prom committees, and when the big night came, giving the welcoming speech. On the VANGUARD staff in his senior year, Tommy enjoyed selling ads and washing cars to raise the necessary funds.

JULIA BAKER, a very reliable senior, uses her spare time at Hobbton as secretary to Mrs. Christine Hudson. She enjoys her business courses and is a member of the Business Club. Julia has been a Beta Club member for two years, an F.H.A. 'er for four years. During her senior year, Julia was a faithful worker on the VANGUARD staff. CHARLIE WARREN has for four years excelled as a French horn player in the Hobbton High band. He has also spent many afternoons and nights playing in the dance band. Music isn't Charlie's only interest, for he was a hard driving left guard on the football team and a capable manager of the basketball team. In addition to these extracurricular activities, Charlie has found time to sing in the glee club and be a member of the French Club.

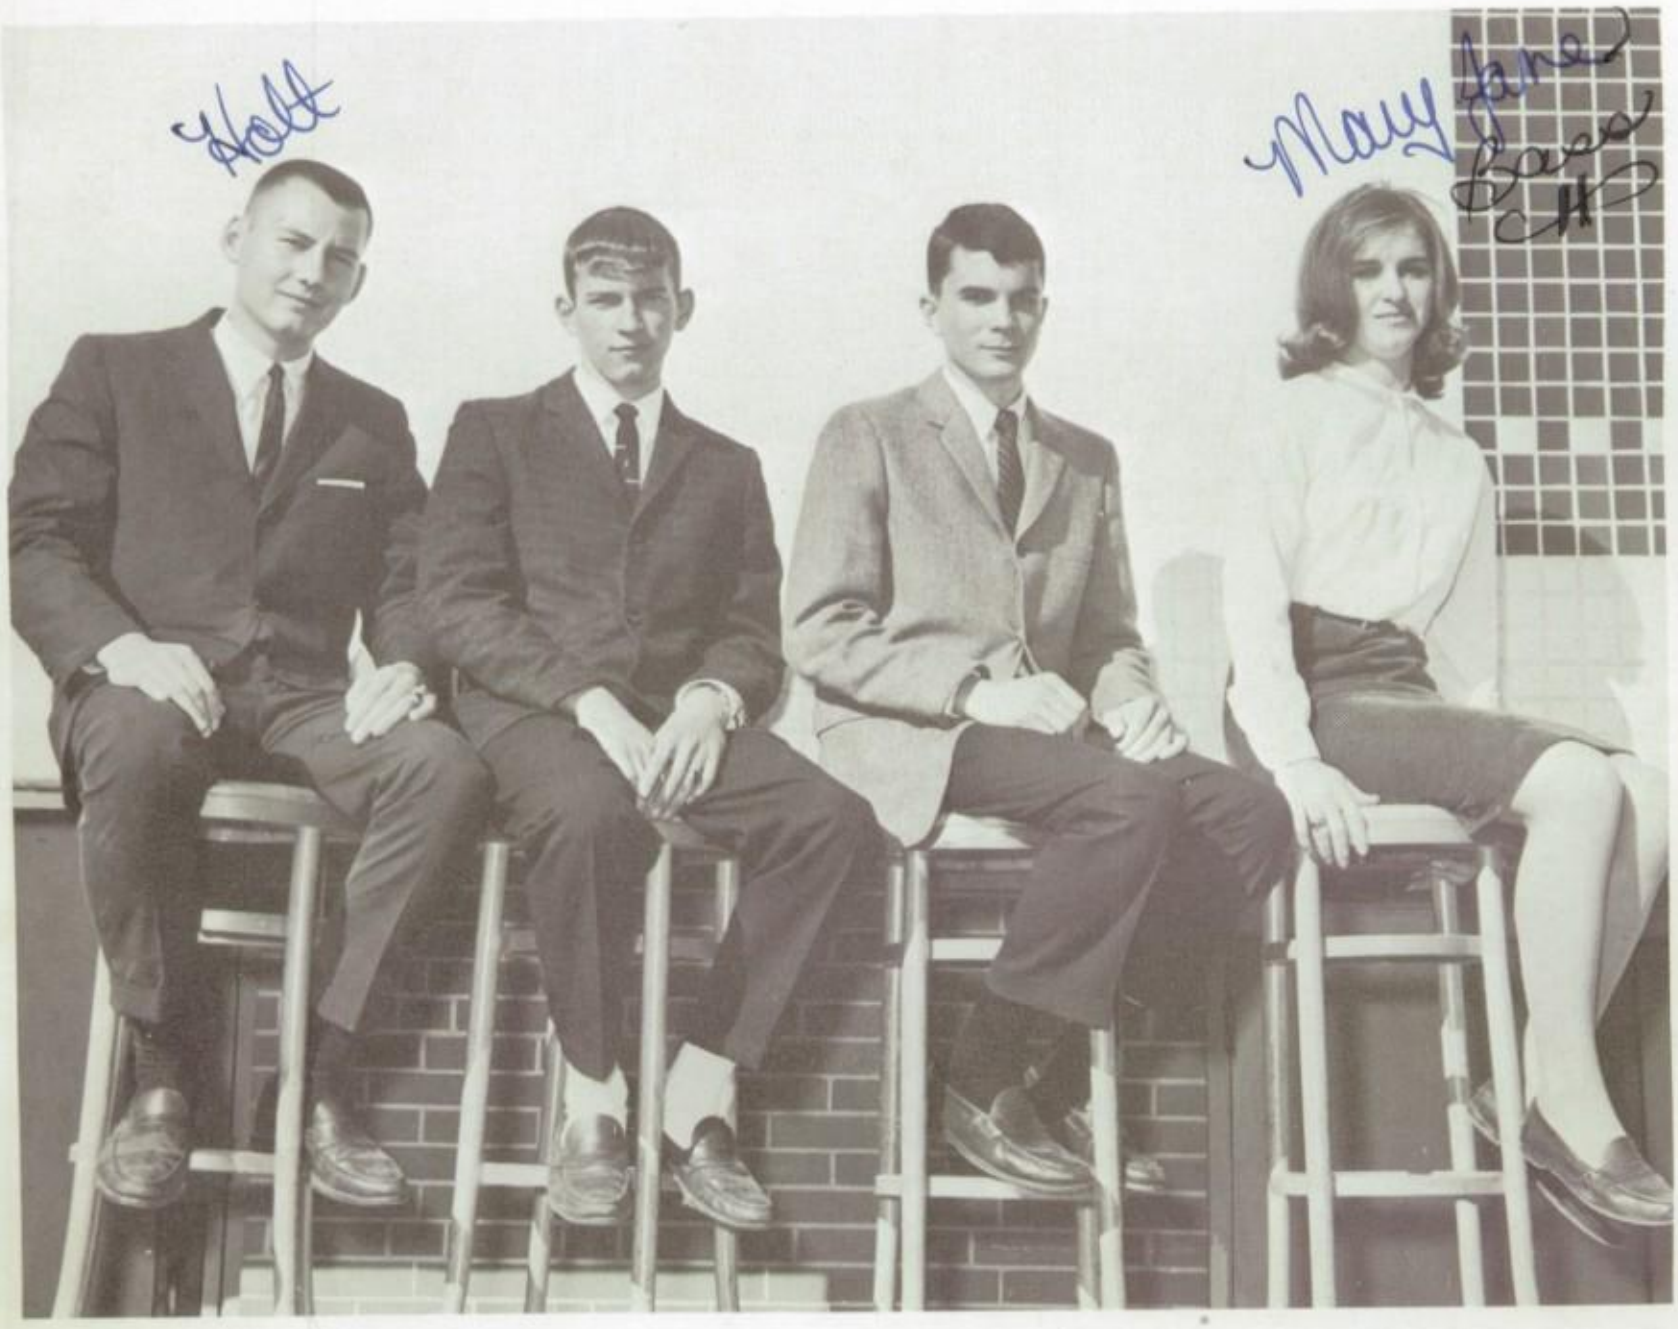
Sometimes there are things besides books in our lockers. On the day when the mascots came to school a locker would have been a welcome retreat from all the admiring eyes... except that James Hobbs wanted to play "pee-pie" with Martha Rae Bradshaw, "Mom," she said with a coy smile, "he's making eyes at me!"

Mascots



Most of the other sections of our book show our students at work, at play, and competing for honors, but this gives an unbiased picture of each individual. No one is given more attention that the other but rather each is important, for every individual contributes something to the school. In this section you will find not just certain ones but all of our

PEOPLE



The senior year is a year of people: people who have evolved from the scared eiththh graders to people of assurance and purpose; it is a year of people who have worked together under the direction of class officers HOLT JACKSON, PRESIDENT; HAROLD BRADSHAW, VICE PRESIDENT; MARY J. BASS, SECRETARY; and GLENN TALTON, TREASURER; for honor and recognition individually. The editing of the yearbook, the efforts to raise $3,000 for it, and the attainment of this goal brought pride and honor to the class. The seniors, in the second year of football at Hobbton, gave the school a winning team. Ken Cox was named All-East 2A football player; Glenn McKenzie and Ken Cox, the Eastern Plains All-Conference Team. Carolyn Raynor was crowned Miss Merry Christmas in Dunn and Miss Holiday Queen in Clinton. Sandra Keen won the DAR Award. Gayle Daughtry was crowned Miss Hobbton; Mary Jane Bass was elected Homecoming Queen and Sherry Best and Gary Wilkes elected Mr. and Miss Vanguard. G. B. Hatcher was elected president of the S.G.A. and Barry Burch, vice president. As each senior listens to the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" he will remember vividly his senior year and the people of his senior year.

The junior year is a year of people, people of confidence and indecision. It is the year when the juniors work hard to meet their goal in the magazine drive and then spend countless hours planning and decorating for the junior senior prom, guided by class officers TONY McCULLEN, PRESIDENT; BILLY BASS, VICE PRESIDENT; BEATSY GRIMES, SECRETARY; and VICKIE JOHNSON, TREASURER. It is a year when there is much worry over the PSAT and SAT. Juniors who have achieved individual recognition are Ann Troublefield, who was elected State Parliamentarian; Ted Bradshaw, who earned a position on the Eastern Plains Conference football team. Miriam Strickland was elected secretary of the S.G.A. Representing the junior class in the Miss Hobbton Pageant were Cecelia Smith, and Ann Troublefield. Helping to cheer the teams to victory were Emily Warren, Lorraine Sutton, and Ann Troublefield. The juniors eagerly ordered class rings and then they begin the long wait for their arrival and the chance to take over the front seats in assembly.

A little wiser now, the sophomore people have become accustomed to high school life and move with more confidence. Elected to class officers were BUTCH WARREN, PRESIDENT; DANNY BAILEY, VICE PRESIDENT; GAIL THORNTON, SECRETARY; BETTY JEAN WILLIAMS, TREASURER. The sophomores find their schedules well filled with Mrs. Darden's book reports and football and biology and basketball and geometry. Hope Allen was elected treasurer of the S. G. A.; Gail Thornton, Connie Britt and Debbie Chestnut won positions as cheerleaders. Dianne Bass represented her class in the Miss Hobbton Pageant. Abigail Warren and Hope Allen were chosen for Mr. Simpson's debating team. As the year ends, they realize that they have made places for themselves and have begun to shake off the old title of "wise fools".

The freshman year is one of adjustments. First came the task of becoming a class and electing officers. Elected were RAY BREWER, PRESIDENT; TOMMY McCULLEN, VICE PRESIDENT; FRANKIE WARREN, SECRETARY; and WINNIE McCULLEN, TREASURER. The freshman made new friends, discovered that halls are long and loitering just couldn't be done between classes, and learned that teachers could be strict. The struggle with P.E., Great Expectations, and just trying to get into the swing of "it all" absorbed them completely. However, they took time to cheer Gloria Britt, their Miss Hobbton representative who was selected "Miss Congeniality." It was a year that began in wide-eyed anticipation and became unmatched by any other for its bursting enthusiasm.

The eighth grade is a year of realization and anticipation. The eighth graders realize that time has finally caught up with them—that they are out of the pampering stages of childhood and that must step out on their own in high school. The year is spent in preparation. The reading lessons, the science experiments, the dancing demonstration are entered into with gusto. One of the highlights of the year was the welcoming of Mrs. Herring who had been out for several months because of illness. Helping the students realize their unity as a group have officers KENNETH JOYNER, BILLY MARSHBORN, DALE DENNING, PRESIDENTS; MICKEY FARMER, VICE PRESIDENT: NINA GRAY HOBBS, DEBBIE McPHAIL, SANDY HONEYCUTT, SECRETARIES; LILLIE McLAMB, SUE BAREFOOT, TREASURERS.

"You are? Gosh, I used to be a jockey too."

Mother, discussing her teen - age daughters, to friends at PTA meeting: "The older one is interested in making A's and the younger one in making eyes—and they're both succeeding."

A girl away at school for the first time wrote her mother: "Please send me some stamps. They are so expensive here."

"I got rid of one of the puppies, Mom, and did I make a swell deal."

Marcia!

It has been a pleasure being in your classes the past years, especially this year. Good, Good! Luck in the future.

Love
carol.

Marcia,

It has been fun being friends these past few months (I mean really close friends).

I hope you have enjoied it as much as I have. How about watching people being put in the waste basket and the closet episode. How about Paul's spit balls? (wow they hurt?) Johnny's an expert at turning over desks. Best Luck In the future. Your good friend.

Carolyn Farmer

Marcia,

It has been fun being your classmate in the past years. I wish you the best of luck,

If Keith Lindsay ever reads this he'll be the only one to read it and understand it. He knows I have impulses and here goes one.

LOOK Out!

We've got a green carpet in our living room. Just to sit here with someone with brown eyes you don't notice it's beauty. Sitting here now I do. It's olive green. You know that popular color in Winter 66-67. These little loops look like people. Just look at the carpet you can't see what's inside them) look at the bottom. Not the outside appearance. Maybe you're reading this Keith you know what I'm talking about. You think one of those little loops. The inside fooled ya! It really didn't. Really that girl. that dated ya 5 weeks. There's about 4 sides to me. One side dates you. One side cares about you. 2 sides I) try's not to listen to you 2) and the other loves you. Thanks for everything Keith.

Love ya,

My dated Marcia,

Hello. For the two years that we have been friends, and that year that I really did dislike you (What got into me?) is the reason for this letter. In the sixth grade, why couldn't you catch a soft ball? Well, I still can't! Anyway, you have been one of the best girls I ever knew. I truly enjoy going to your house, because I feel at home and I can fly rather tie up Florence. (Well, don't tell her I said so).

Celia Beaton

Marcia,

I have enjoyed being your friend all these years. Hope we will be friends for many years to come. Good Luck in the future.

Your friend,

Marcia,

You are a very mean girl most of the time.
You are a very sweet girl.
No kidding.

New Years Eve 1967-68

Carolyn Farmer spent the night with me. We had a blast. We went to Newton Grove. Phil Finnigan (LOVCR) & Dale Jackson came to see us. We had punch but nobody got drunk. After they left we went to bed but we're really started the New Year out right

Love to whomever reads this!

Now that you have seen our yearbook, we hope that you will appreciate all the effort that has been put forth by many of our students to present Volume IV of the VANGUARD. We are very much aware of the work that has been put in it,
and we are extremely proud of the finished product. We sincerely hope that this book will serve as a reminder of the events of this successful year and will remain a treasure for years to come.
We feel that in this book we have accurately portrayed the heart of our School, the PEOPLE.
